Kim Kummer, ESA International Council President 2018-2019

Happy New Year!

As the clock struck midnight did you make a list of resolutions for the coming year? I believe the top resolutions every year are to lose weight and exercise more. Those are both habits I know I need to work on every day. When Sherry Day was IC President, the candidates shared their big dream at the Welcome Party. My “Dream” was to lose weight and control my emotional eating. I publically put it out there to 300 of my closest friends. I did it! I lost 35 pounds and maintained it for a year+ because I executed on my dream but then....I quit eating less and let the emotional eating take over. I haven’t decided on my personal resolutions for 2019 yet but I know if I write it down so that I can visualize then I am more likely to turn resolution into execution.

What will your resolutions look like for ESA in 2019?

- Plan a TACO ‘bout ESA party
- Pledge a new member(s)
- Charter a new chapter
- Nominate a Jr. & Sr. High Youth on the state level

January 2019

- Encourage chapter members to come to Memphis for IC Convention
- Take on more responsibility in your chapter, state, or IC level
- Promote a “Kid Causes” activity in your chapter

How will you execute these into action? Begin by making a list of projects, prioritize based on time-frame, involve others, determine what needs to happen to execute the plan and as we say at the Kummer house, “one bite at time” is how you get started.

The Gift of a new beginning, a resolution to change or do something, is what the new year is all about. 525,600 minutes sounds like plenty of time, however, it seems to go quicker and quicker each year. Be grateful for all the gifts you have received make resolutions to share those gifts with people around you and together we can do remarkable things in ESA!

xoxo – Kim

Announcement: ‘Kid Causes’ Chair Anita Hilburn

One of the great elements about ESA is the variety of service projects. Kim’s focus this year is “Kid Causes” something ESA does well. There are already several programs in place members can chose to participate or add their own chapter spin or create a project specific to their community. Kim wants to know what is happening in your states and chapters for Kid Causes this year. Anita Hilburn, Louisiana, is serving as the Kid Causes Chair. Please share with Anita a short synopsis about your project and please include a photo or two. Send your information to: anita.hilburn@gmail.com. A Kid Causes form is attached to this newsletter.

1st Vice President

Is your state's 1st Vice President in charge of nominations for office in your state? If the 1st VP has this responsibility, do you recognize how difficult that responsibility might be? Encouraging folks to run for an office is oftentimes extremely daunting. Should I provide you with a list of reasons why this year (or any year) just won't work? And then, of course, there are those who've already held a particular office and they believe that now it's someone else's turn. Having been Minnesota State President two times, I'll tell you the second time around was pretty doggone easy-peasy, i.e., I sure wasn't that scaredy-cat that I was the first time. And, I do believe it was easier the second time to come up with different ideas. How do you know unless you give it a try? Failure, to me, is never trying. In fact, there is no such thing as failure; it's simply an opportunity. There's always a lesson that can be learned. You know, you might think that you're afraid because folks might criticize you., But, no one really, truly wants to see someone fail; they're looking for your success! Do you have some new members in your state? Well, don't "push" them into an office they are unprepared to handle. So, how about assigning a mentor to assist with the responsibilities for the potential office as well as all the "unwritten" rules that go along with it. Now, come on, you all know what I mean.

Are you a resolution maker? If you are, how about offering to step up either to an appointed office or volunteer to become a nominee for an elected office? There just has to be someone in your state that you absolutely know is the one you can always rely on to be a positive cheerleader. So, why not request that person to assist in encouraging someone new to share their gifts with your state membership? Our leader, Kim, says "ESA is a Gift" and "we all have gifts to share"; I believe her!!

Developing leaders, fostering friendships and doing good works is what ESA is all about! Let's finish this ESA year proving to Kim and everyone in our state that we're willing to share those gifts. I'm a huge believer in all the good ESA does and I'll be your cheerleader if you need one. I'm an email or phone call away if you want my assistance.

Hope your New Year is starting out exactly as you had hoped! Cheers!

90 years of ESA and we want you to enjoy every moment. Starting out the week with “The Flavors of Memphis” are a series of workshops on Wednesday and Thursday that will include food, history, and music. Pictured in this article are two of our local presenters.

Happy New Year ESA Family!

I hope your holidays were fabulous and you are making your 2019 plans for a bigger and even brighter future! It’s always a challenge to come up with just the right New Year Resolution, and usually a bigger challenge trying to keep it...

We’ve been working hard to find just the right speakers and workshops for IC Convention in Memphis. We’ll be celebrating Willy Bearden will engage us in a conversation that runs the gamut of Memphis history, legends and myth. Lots of great images and amusing stories. Willy Bearden is a Memphis-based filmmaker, photographer, author and producer. His museum projects include The Blues Hall of Fame, The Cotton Museum at the Memphis Cotton Exchange, and the Memphis Wonders Series. He has produced several outstanding documentaries, written three books on local history and received several awards.

Tim Sampson is the Communications Director for the Soulsville Foundation, the nonprofit parent company that operates the Staxx Museum of American Soul Music, Staxx Music Academy, and The Soulsville Charter School in Memphis. He has been a freelance journalist for 25 years and has won several journalistic awards. He will be sharing the history of “soul” in Memphis and what the Soulsville Foundation is doing to encourage local youth to keep the Memphis music “flavor” alive for future generations to enjoy. Many of their Alumni can be found playing at B. B. King’s on Beale St.

In the next few months there will be lots more information to come! More

Membership- ESA Headquarters

Of the Month- Dixie Daly, Sigma Rho/Loveland CO

Dixie Daly has sponsored four new members into the Sigma Rho chapter since September, in addition to the 4 new members she sponsored last year. When asked about her remarkable success in sharing the gift of ESA, she is quick to say, "It's all about the ASK! I am always on the lookout for people who I think are like us --like Sigma Rho members, I mean. I keep an eye out for people who I see give of their time to something in our community already because that helps me know they'll like what we do in ESA. And I look for people who are HAPPY, because we are a happy group and really value that in one another."

Dixie works for the Chamber of Commerce in Loveland and attends Chamber and other civic events regularly. "Sometimes, I think the tendency in ESA is to shy away from inviting someone to join ESA who already volunteers elsewhere because we figure their time is spoken for. But I've found the opposite to be true. People who like to give are often receptive to new ways to do that because they enjoy it so much. So when it comes up in conversation with someone that they are helping a project or cause, I perk

So what makes a successful “Ask”? Dixie explains, “I say to someone, ‘That’s great you help that cause. I like to volunteer too, and I belong to an awesome organization that I think you’d really like too, because I notice you’re a lot like me in that way. And you’re fun, which is a requirement in our group!’ Then I tell them about ESA, what we are doing in Sigma Rho, and invite them to check us out. I try to invite them to a social first so they can really feel the vibe of our awesome chapter, and then next to a meeting because it’s important so they get a realistic sense of what we all do together. I also tell them, ‘Just do what you can, you don’t have to come to everything.’ We keep a very busy calendar, formal projects and socially, and that’s part of the beauty of helping the chapter grow larger. If we have an activity where a few of our members can’t make it, it’s not a deal-breaker, there are enough of us always available to make it a success.”

ESA for St Jude

It was both an honor and a privilege to represent the ESA membership at the St. Jude Memphis Marathon Weekend. While wearing my Team ESA shirt on Friday, I lost count of how many times I was told "Thank You" for ESA's longtime support of St. Jude. From the cashier at the Gift Shop, to the ALSAC representatives at the Race Registration Packet Pickup and the Expo, they all said that they loved our ESA members. My greatest memory of the weekend, however, must be on the course on Saturday morning. It really made my heart swell when all the participants were being cheered on by St. Jude patients, families, doctors and nurses as we made our way through the St. Jude campus just after we finished the first mile. The second-best thing was then cheering on our Executive Director, Charlotte Carloni, and her dad in the last mile of their 26.2-mile run. Because of all your support and fund-raising efforts, we have surpassed our goal this year! If you have never been to the St. Jude Memphis Marathon Weekend, I challenge you to attend next year on December 7, 2019. Mark your calendars!

The first of the year is upon us—for some of us this time of year can be difficult -the weather is cold and gray, the excitement of the holidays have come and gone, family have returned home. Take a few moments to check on your family, neighbors and friends especially if you know they are alone. A simple text message, voicemail, phone call or email can brighten someone's day.

Please continue to share your prayer request with the IC Chaplain but don't forget to share the happy moments as well—births, special anniversaries, special birthday, and even community awards. We need to celebrate together as well as pray together for those in need.

Beta Zeta Chapter 4137 had their annual Secret Pal Christmas Party on Sunday, December 16, 2018 at the Bear River Casino in Loleta. Bonnie and husband Jack, Jackie and husband George, Karen and husband Gene, Wincel, Imogene and Marcella enjoyed a wonderful dinner, great company and of course opening gifts from their Secret Sisters.

Texas State Council

President: Kelly Kinser

"JUST IMAGINE"

Publicity Chair: Cheryl Deleranko

As with most ESA members, December didn't slow down. There were many charitable events throughout the state. Foremost on our Wish List were benefits for St. Jude Children's Hospital. ESA members from Zeta Tau & Delta Epsilon joined District IV, San Antonio, on December 13th & 14th, to help generate an incredible donation of $525,689! This was thanks to the incredible partnership with KJ-97, an I-Heart radio station, at the North Star Mall in San Antonio. Royce Walker, Becky Hovermale, and local St. Jude Rep, Anyoeth Sanchez, made our efforts smooth.

The Kappa Beta Holiday Tea at the Dallas Arboretum was an incredible day, with perfect weather & special memories. Christmas Tree,

L-R: Cree, Cathy Roberts, Texas State President: Kelly Kinser, Sue Jones, Pam O’Neal Gonzalez, Cyndy Long, Heather Thatcher, & Judy Canterbury

Just a bit late, however we wanted to mention a great honor for our Past Texas State President, Linda Waters. At the IC Convention in Phoenix in July 2018, our very own Ms. Waters was recognized as the recipient of the BJ Clark Award. This Award is given to the State President who has gone above and beyond the responsibilities of her office as State President.

A Huge Congratulations to Linda!

Texas Chairpersons, Rose Pasillas & Debbi Morris, are actively preparing with their committees for the IC Convention to be held July 15-18, 2020, at the Embassy Suites in Grapevine, Texas. It’s never too early to plan for this fun & TEXAS size event! We are so very excited about it ourselves—to Welcome ESA members from near and far!

Hoping you all had a Very Merry Christmas and have exciting plans for 2019!
